Terms and Conditions

By submitting a grant application to CreateSA, you declare that:

- The information in your application is, to the best of your knowledge, complete and accurate
- You have read the relevant grant information and if necessary, discussed your application with a CreateSA grants officer
- You are an eligible applicant
- You have no overdue acquittals for previous CreateSA funding (Note: you can have more than one active grant with CreateSA)
- The written words, concepts and ideas in your application are your own, unless clearly acknowledged as being from another source
- You understand that anything wrong or missing may disqualify your application
- You understand that a panel comprising representatives from relevant sectors, such as Arts, Health and other areas aligned with the aims of the program may decide not to recommend your application
- If successful, you will comply with CreateSA's requirement that grant recipients adopt and implement a Respectful Behaviours policy and procedure
- Where appropriate, current letters of support for relevant Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander artists or organisations endorsing the cultural merits of the project have been provided.

Information Privacy

CreateSA collects personal information as reasonably necessary for the purposes and functions of:

- administering our grants and funding program
- keeping you informed about relevant upcoming events, grants funding initiatives and outcomes, our services, special events or client feedback surveys as well as our activities in general
- improving our website and other services.

OFFICIAL: Healing Arts South Australia Application Form

CreateSA complies with the Government's Information Privacy Principles (Department of the Premier and Cabinet Circular, dated 20 June 2016) when dealing with all personal information.

The information that you provide in your application may be used by CreateSA for:

- processing and assessing your application – CreateSA will provide the information to the panel
- verifying other funding income for your project – CreateSA may provide information to other agencies nominated in your application
- processing, paying and administering your grant
- reviewing and evaluating our funding programs, strategies, plans and services – we may contact you for this purpose
- staff training
- systems testing and process improvement
- compiling statistics and reports.

The information you present to us in your application is treated as confidential, however, CreateSA staff and members of the assessment panel will see it, and it may also be made available to those assessing future grant applications you make. Members of the assessment panel are bound by a Code of Conduct.

If your application is successful, the grant agreement and associated documents for your particular project may be audited, which will mean disclosure of such documents, including your personal information, to auditors for audit purposes only.

If your application is successful, your personal details and the details of your application (including support material, the amount of funding you receive, the information you provide in your reports, and text and images relating to the funded activity) may be used, with your consent, for marketing and promotion of funding outcomes, Healing Arts South Australia and South Australian arts and culture. This may include publication on our website and/or other Government websites, notifying your local Member of Parliament, the media, local government, Australia Council and State Government agencies.

Assessment Process

All applications are subject to a competitive process, which includes evaluation by a panel. Panel members are selected based on industry experience, up to date knowledge and specific areas of expertise.

The panel will assess:

- if the activation demonstrates a measurable contribution to health and wellbeing through arts and culture, and
- if the activation aligns with one or more of the Healing Arts South Australia key themes, and
- if the activation demonstrates strong community engagement and participation, and
- if the activation is feasible and includes clear planning, a realistic budget and the capacity to deliver the project successfully.

Important Information for successful applicants

If your application is successful, CreateSA will provide you with a grant agreement setting out the offer and any special terms and conditions. It is your responsibility to ensure you understand your obligations under the agreement.

You must return a signed grant agreement and a compliant tax invoice to enable payment of your grant.

OFFICIAL: Healing Arts South Australia Application Form

Form Preview

You should request approval from CreateSA in writing immediately if there are any changes to:

- key personnel
- timelines
- budget
- funding from other sources
- location or venues
- anything else that would alter the outcomes of the agreed activity.

No changes can be made to the activity details without the written approval of CreateSA. The terms and conditions required by CreateSA are set out in the grant agreement.

Taxation

For information about GST and other tax issues go to the Australian Taxation Office website. The grant agreement contains provisions about GST and the issuing of tax invoices.

Intellectual Property

Where a funded activity involves the use of copyright material it is the applicant's responsibility to provide all the necessary information regarding intellectual property associated with the activities and deliverables. The grant agreement contains provisions about vesting of intellectual property.

Acknowledgements

All successful applications need to acknowledge CreateSA support in all published material associated with the activity. The grant agreement details the required acknowledgements.

Reporting

A standard condition of your grant agreement is that you will acquit the funds and activity following completion. You may be required to provide further information, should your report not be satisfactory.

Deadline

Applications and any additional material cannot be submitted after 5pm on the advertised closing date.

Errors and Omissions

It is the applicant's responsibility to make sure all of their application is correct and complete before submitting. CreateSA does not check, amend or update applications. Applications cannot be modified after being submitted.

Acceptance of Terms and Conditions *

- ☐ I have read and agree to the Terms and Conditions.
- ☐ I have read and agree to comply with CreateSA's requirement to adopt and implement a Respectful Behaviours policy and procedure.
