Terms and Conditions

 indicates a required field

Nominated works must have been presented in South Australia between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026.

Nominees must live or work in South Australia or have lived or worked here during a period of major professional development.

If you have previously been nominated or shortlisted for a Ruby Award, you are welcome to nominate for a 2026 award.

If you have previously won one of the following four awards, you cannot nominate for it again:

- Premier's Award for Lifetime Achievement
- Stevie Gadlabarti Goldsmith Memorial Award
- Geoff Crowhurst Memorial Award
- Frank Ford Memorial Award.

You can nominate the same work in up to two award categories. Each nomination must explain how the work meets the criteria for that category.

If you are nominating an individual, you must include written confirmation that they agree to being nominated.

By submitting a nomination, you give CreateSA permission to use your application materials to promote the Ruby Awards and South Australia's arts, culture and creative industries. This may include advertising, publicity and displays.

All nominees must be available to participate in promotional activities if requested.

This may include media interviews, photography and filming.

Nominees must be available to attend the awards presentation event on Friday 13 November 2026.

The judging panel's decisions are final.
